Development of Dadra Nagar Haveli Island

2889. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the inhabitants of Dadra-Nagar Haveli continue to remain primitive and economically undeveloped since the merger of Island with the Indian Union in 1964;

(b) if so, what percentage of the annual budget for the development of the Island is actually spent for the economic development of the Island;

(c) what are the various development programmes taken up by Government for the development of the Island;

(d) what is the actual achievement; and

(e) whether Government have made any critical review of the various programmes to identify the causes for their poor performance, if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Out of total Annual Budget for 1993-94 of Rs. 63.93 crores the Plan size is Rs. 23.00 crores and Non-Plan is Rs. 40.93 crores. The entire Plan resources and a significant portion of Non-Plan budget is to be used for developmental activities.

(c) and (d) Various developmental programmes undertaken include creation of infrastructural facilities such as roads, electricity, irrigation facilities, water supply, Schools and Hospitals, etc. Major developments since liberation are given in the statement enclosed. (See below).

(e) All the programmes and schemes are reviewed periodically at the highest level in the Union Territory and also by the concerned Ministries and the Planning Commission and have been found satisfactory.
